A Wise Suggestion

When making up Your List of Journals, include

— THE —

Medical Summary

It will pay you to advertise in the Medical Summary. In proportion to cost, the Medical Summary is, beyond a doubt, the best medical journal advertising medium published. This is a fact that has been proved over and over again. The Summary has cut a niche of its own, which no other journal can exactly fill. It is not an organ of any section, clique or ring, but is a national journal, reaching the rank and file of the profession throughout every section of the United States and Canada. It ranks among the most popular of all the medical journals. Therefore its merits and advantages as an advertising medium are too apparent to need any extended mention. Not a single edition of the Summary during the past nine years has been less than 10,000 copies—now 12,500. If you desire to introduce any new remedies, preparations, medicines, etc., or to keep your business or any standard articles constantly before those most likely to create and encourage an active and increasing demand for them, try the Summary. You will find the Summary after a fair trial will give results most satisfactory at the lowest rates.

The Summary is a Monthly Journal of Practical Medicine, No long articles. Brief, practical, reliable. Terms: $1.00 a year; single copies, 10 cents. Address,

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

FIFTH REVISED EDITION.

DENTAL REGISTER,*OF THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

The revised edition, to appear in 1902 will contain the names and addresses of over 25,000 Dentists, a list of the DENTAL COLLEGES in the United States and Canada, a synopsis of the LAWS for regulating the practice of Dentistry, and the Graduation Particulars of each Dentist. It will also include a vast amount of other information of special interest to the Dental Profession, calculated to insure for it a large and general circulation throughout both countries.

It is the ONLY NATIONAL PUBLICATION of the kind, and is conceded to be the standard and recognized Dental Register, and list of Dentists, Dental Institutions and Societies.

If you have anything to say to the 25,000 DENTISTS in the United States and Canada, there is no better or more economical way of saying it to them than by an advertisement in the Register; or, if you wish to send them your circulars, the Register contains the list in convenient form for addressing.

PRICE OF REGISTER, PER COPY, $10.00.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

RECTAL DISEASES.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

RECTAL DISEASES.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

RHODE ISLAND.

CAPITAL, PROVIDENCE.

Population of State, 428,556.

(U. S. Census of 1900).

Number of Physicians, 652.

The State of Rhode Island extends from 41 degrees 18 minutes to 42 degrees 5 minutes north latitude, and from 71 degrees 5 minutes to 71 degrees 53 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north and east by Massachusetts, on the south by the Atlantic Ocean, and on the west by Connecticut. It is the smallest state in the Union, comprising an area of 1,306 square miles, or 835,840 acres.

The climate, like that of all the New England States, is marked by great extremes, the winters being very cold and the summers correspondingly hot. The mean annual temperature at Providence is 47.91, and at Newport 49.39, and the average annual rainfall varies from 40 inches in the eastern part to 44 in the west.

1830.....	97,190	1870.....	217,368
1840... ..	108,830	1880.....	276,531
1850.....	147,545	1890.....	345,506
1860.....	174,620	1900... ..	428,556

The State Board of Health reports: Deaths in 1900, 8,823; rate per 1,000 of population, 20.6.

MEDICAL LAW OF RHODE ISLAND.

(As Amended November, 1901.)

Section 1. It shall be the duty of each town and city clerk to purchase a book of suitable size, to be known as the "medical register" of each city or town, and to set apart one full page for the registration of each physician; and when any physician shall die or remove from the city or town, said clerk shall make a note of the same at the bottom of the page, and shall on the first day of January in each year transmit to the office of the state board of health a duly-certified list of the physicians of said city or town registered under this chapter, together with such other information as is hereinafter required, and perform such other duties as are required by this chapter; and such clerk shall receive the sum of fifty cents from each physician so registered, which shall be his full compensation for all the duties required under this chapter.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice medicine or surgery in any of its branches, within the limits of this state, who has not exhibited and registered, in the city or town clerk's office of the city or town in which he or she resides, his or her authority for so practicing medicine as herein prescribed, together with his or her age, address, place of birth and the school or system of medicine to which he or she proposes to belong; and the person so registering shall subscribe and verify by oath, before such clerk, an affidavit containing such facts, which, if wilfully false, shall subject the affiant to conviction and punishment for perjury.

Sec. 3. Authority to practice medicine under this chapter shall be a certificate from the state board of health, and said board shall, upon application, after examination, issue a certificate to any reputable physician who intends to practice medicine or surgery in this state and who shall present himself before the state board of health and pass in a satisfactory manner such examination as said board may require. Any physician so presenting himself shall pay to said board the sum of ten dollars ($10) for each examination, and said fee shall in no case be returned, but shall be applied to pay the expenses of said board of health in conducting such examinations. Each certificate so issued shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of said board and shall be attested by the official seal, and not more than two dollars ($2) shall be charged for a certificate.

Sec. 4. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to authorize any Itinerant Doctor to register or to practice medicine in any part of this state.

Sec. 5. The board may, after due notice and hearing, in its discretion refuse to grant the certificate provided for in section 3 of this chapter to any physician who is not of good moral character, or who has violated any of the laws of the state, or who has been guilty of gross unprofessional conduct or conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public, and may, after due notice and hearing, revoke any certificate issued or granted by it heretofore for like cause or for any fraud or deception committed in obtaining such certificate, or for any other cause which in the opinion of said board shall render the holder of such certificate an unfit person to practice medicine in this state. The members of said board are hereby severally authorized to administer oaths, and said board, in all cases or proceedings pending before it, is hereby authorized and empowered to summon witnesses by subpoena signed by the secretary of said board, and to compel such witnesses to attend and testify in the same manner as witnesses are compelled to appear and testify in either division of the supreme court; and said board is authorized to compel the production of all papers, books, documents, records, certificates, or other legal evidence that may be necessary or proper for the determination and decision of any question or the discharge of any duty required by law of said board, by issuing a subpoena duces tecum, signed by the secretary; and every person disobeying any such writ shall be considered as in contempt, and said board may punish any contempt of its authority in like manner as contempt may be punished by either division of the supreme court. Any person who shall wilfully swear falsely in any proceeding, matter, or hearing before said board shall be deemed guilty of the crime of perjury. Said board shall serve a copy of its decision or ruling upon any person whose certificate has been refused or revoked. Any person aggrieved by any decision or ruling of said board may, within ten days after receiving said notice, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, take an appeal therefrom to the appellate division of the supreme court, sitting at Providence, and shall file therein his reasons of appeal, and serve a copy thereof on the secretary, or person performing the duties of secretary, of said board; and said appellate division of the supreme court shall, as soon as may be, hear and determine said appeal.

Sec. 6. Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to discriminate against any particular school or system of medicine, or to prohibit gratuitous services in case of emergency; nor shall this chapter apply to commissioned surgeons of the United States army, navy, or marine hospital service, or to legally qualified physicians of another state, called to see a particular case, in consultation with a registered physician of this state, but who do not open an office or appoint any place in this state where they may meet patients or receive calls.

Sec. 7. Complaints for violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be made by the secretary of said board, and said secretary shall be exempt from giving surety for costs on any complaint made as aforesaid.

Sec. 8. Any person who, not being then lawfully authorized to practice medicine within this state, and so registered according to law, shall practice medicine or surgery or attempt to practice medicine or surgery, or any of the branches of medicine or surgery, after having received therefor or with the intent of receiving therefor, either directly or indirectly, any bonus, gift, or compensation, or who shall open an office with intent to practice medicine or shall hold himself out to the public as a practitioner of medicine, whether by appending to his name the title of doctor or any abbreviation thereof, or M. D., or any other title or designation implying a practitioner of medicine, or in any other way, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined fifty dollars, and upon each and every subsequent conviction shall be fined one hundred dollars and imprisoned thirty days, either or both, in the discretion of the court; and in no case when any provision of this chapter has been violated shall the person so violating such provision be entitled to receive compensation for services rendered.

RECTAL DISEASES.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 1,198.

South Carolina, one of the original thirteen states, has, by the U. S. census of 1900, a population of 1,340,316, as compared with a population in 1890 of 1,151,149, representing an increase during the decade of 189,167, or 16.4 per cent. The following table shows the increase in population since 1830:

1830.....	581,185	1870.....	705,606
1840.....	594,398	1880.....	995,577
1850.....	668,507	1890...	1,151,149
1860. ...	703,708	1900.....	1,340,316

The total land surface is, approximately, 30,170 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 38.2; 1900, 44.4.

It extends from 32 degrees to 35 degrees north latitude, and from 78 degrees 35 minutes to 83 degrees 30 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north by North Carolina, on the southwest by the Savannah river, which separates it from Georgia, and on the southeast by the Atlantic ocean. It has a coast line of about 200 miles, indented with numerous inlets and fringed with numerous small islands—cut off from the mainland by sounds, affording a safe passage for river steamers—famous for the fine quality of cotton they produce. The surface from the seaboard for about a hundred miles inland is low, mainly level, and diversified by extensive swamps and vast timber tracts. Here grows the cypress and pine, the yucca, the magnolia, the palmetto, cotton, rice, oranges and tropical fruits. The "middle country" beyond this is more or less rolling, and broken by sand hills. The northwest portion of the state is mountainous, being occupied by the spurs and the outlying ranges of the Blue Ridge. The winters are short and temperate, seldom of more than eight weeks' duration, and the summers, though long, are not hot or enervating, being tempered in the east by the vicinity of the ocean and in the west by the elevation. The mean annual temperature ranges from 60 degrees in the north to 67 degrees in the south, and the average annual rainfall is about 45 inches.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 150) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was received.

SUMMARY OF REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSE TO PRACTICE.

The State Board of Medical Examiners holds its meetings at the State House in Columbia on the third Tuesday of May of each year, at which time all applicants for a license to practice medicine in this State must exhibit a diploma from a recognized medical college, a certificate of moral character, and must pass a satisfactory written examination on all the branches of medicine. But one examination for permanent license is held each year.

The President and Secretary of the Board are allowed to grant a temporary license to practice medicine until the meeting of the Board in May of each year, at which time the applicant must come up for the regular written examination above mentioned. The applicant for a temporary license will be expected to stand an oral examination on all the branches of medicine. A temporary license fee of $2.50 is charged for temporary license.

Physicians moving into the State from other States are subject to the same laws as those who are residents, irrespective of any examination held previous to their change of location.

No one is allowed to practice medicine in this State without either a temporary license or a regular license as above indicated, except graduates of medical colleges in the State of South Carolina who have completed a four years' course. These are exempted from examination by the Board.

The questions at the examination are similar in character to those given by a first-class medical college.

Examinations are held under the following heads:

1. Anatomy, General and Regional.
2. Physiology, Histology and Hygiene.
3. Chemistry, Practical Urinalysis, Medical Physics.
4. Materia Medica and Therapeutics and Toxicology.
5. Surgery and Surgical Pathology.
6. Practice and Diseases of Children.
7. Obstetrics and Gynecology.

An average of at least 75 per cent on the whole list of subjects shall be attained by each applicant, and he shall not make less than 60 per cent on any one branch.

Examinations will begin at 9 a. m., on the first day of the meeting, and continue for two days.

Two hours will be allowed for each branch. Papers will be discussed by the Board during the afternoon of second day and until all papers are passed upon.

A fee of $5.00 will be required of each applicant who is granted a license, said fee to be paid to the Secretary before the examination is entered upon. The fee will be refunded to those failing to pass.

Published by order of the State Board of Medical Examiners, per S. C. Baker, M. D., Secretary.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

CAPITAL, PIERRE.

Population of State, 401,570.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 485.

South Dakota was admitted to the Union November 3, 1889. It extends from 43 degrees to 46 degrees N. latitude, and from 96 degrees, 22 minutes, 30 seconds to 104 degrees W. longitude, and is bounded on the north by North Dakota, on the west by Montana and Wyoming, on the east by Minnesota and Iowa, and on the south by Nebraska. It has an average length of 206 miles, with an average breadth of 375 miles, and comprises an area of 77,650 square miles, or 49,696,000 acres. The temperature varies during the year from 34 degrees below zero to 103 degrees Fahrenheit. The climate is more mild and genial than the latitude would seem to warrant, and the winters, though cold, are dry, and the air is bracing and invigorating. The average rainfall is about 27 inches, and as it mostly occurs during the warm season, it is most beneficial to vegetation. The atmosphere is dry and clear, and, owing to the elevation, malarial diseases are almost unknown, whilst pulmonary complaints are comparatively rare. Spring opens earlier than in Eastern States in the same latitude.

MEDICAL LAWS OF SOUTH DAKOTA.

An Act to Regulate the Practice of Medicine in the State of South Dakota, and to Constitute a Board of Medical Examiners and Provide Penalties for a Failure to Comply with the Terms Thereof.

Be it enacted, etc.:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any physician or any other person to practice medicine, surgery or obstetrics in any of their departments in this State, unless such person shall have received a license to practice medicine from the Board of Health, as hereinafter provided, and shall have had the same recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in the county where such physician or person shall reside.

Sec. 2. Nothing in this act shall affect those now in the lawful practice of medicine, surgery or obstetrics in this State.

Sec. 3. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit students from prescribing under the supervision of preceptors or to prohibit gratuitous services in case of emergency, nor shall this act apply to commissioned surgeons in the United States army and navy.

Sec. 4. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, or any person who shall practice medicine without having obtained a license as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 5. The Board of Health of this State is hereby constituted a Board of Public Examiners ex-officio for the purpose of examining and licensing physicians to practice medicine in this State, and any person who is a graduate of a lawful medical college who has attended four full courses of medical lectures of six months each, no two full courses within the same year, and who is of good moral character, and is not an habitual drunkard, shall, upon proof of such facts to the superintendent of the State Board of Health as said Board shall require, and on the payment of a license fee of ten dollars, which shall be applied as a part of the superintendent's salary, receive from said superintendent of the State Board of Health a license certifying the applicant to be a practicing physician and qualified for such as prescribed by this section; which license shall be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in the county where such practicing physician resides. Provided, That the requirements of the four courses of lectures shall not apply to those who had graduated prior to the year 1896.

Sec. 6. The State Board of Health shall, upon complaint made to it on oath by one responsible person, have power to cancel any license that may have been issued to any applicant for the practice of medicine, when such license was fraudulently obtained, or when the person to whom such license was issued is an habitual drunkard, or is guilty of immoral practices or gross unprofessional conduct. Provided, That such license shall not be cancelled except after a hearing before such Board of Health at which a majority of such board shall be present, and of which the person holding the license to be cancelled shall have had not less than ten days' notice, and only upon due proof of the facts stated in the complaint; and, Provided further, That an appeal may be taken to the Circuit Court of the county in which the person whose license is cancelled lives, by any person aggrieved thereby, in the same manner as is now provided by law in case of appeal from the decision of County Commissioners.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the State's Attorney to prosecute all violations of this act within his county.

Sec. 8. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted,

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

SYNOPSIS OF MEDICAL LAW.

The latest law of Tennessee approved April 22, 1901, provides for a state board of medical examiners by whom all applicants for license must be examined. The board consists of six members who must be graduated physicians of not less than six years' practice, two of whom must reside in each grand division of the state, the three schools of medicine being represented as follows: Regulars, four; homœopaths and eclectics, each one. The appointments are made by the governor.

Section 5 provides for a regular meeting of the board once each year in the city of Nashville, "so long as the period of temporary licenses hereinafter provided for shall continue, and shall thereafter be held semi-annually in the said city of Nashville; but special meetings may be held oftener upon the call of the president."

Section 6 provides that persons desiring to obtain a license must make application in writing to the board accompanied by the examination fee ($10 for permanent license, $5 for temporary license) and by $5 for certificate of license with satisfactory proof that the applicant is of good moral character. "When these preliminary requirements are satisfied, the applicant shall then present himself before the board for examination upon the following branches, viz: Anatomy, physiology, chemistry, pathology, surgery, obstetrics, materia medica and practice; but the member or members of the board representing each separate school of medicine, shall have the right to examine all applicants of that school in the branches peculiar to the teachings of that school, and the board shall accept the grade placed by such member or members upon such special branches. Provided, however, that graduates of any reputable medical college in the State of Tennessee shall until June 1, 1902, be granted a certificate of license by said board, without reference to the number or length of terms attended and without the examination herein above prescribed; but this provision shall cease and determine after June 1, 1902.

"Section 7. That the two members of said board in each grand division of the state shall at such time or times as the board may direct meet at some convenient point in their respective divisions for the purpose of examining applicants for permanent licenses. Such meetings shall be held at stated periods, and the questions to be propounded upon such examinations shall have been determined upon in advance by the board, and shall be identical in each division and such examinations shall be held on the same day in each division, and under uniform rules and regulations to be adopted by the board. The examination papers shall be sealed up and carried to Nashville to the annual meeting of the board at which time they shall be examined, graded, and passed upon by the board in annual session, and the results declared and certificates issued to those entitled to receive them. The board or any of its respective sections may at the option of the members supplement such written examination by an oral examination, and the recorded value of such oral examination may be given such importance as each member of the board sees fit.

"Section 8. Be it further enacted, that if the applicant for examination shall thereupon be found worthy and competent by the board, it shall issue to him a certificate of permanent license in accordance with the facts in each case to practice medicine or surgery in this state.

"Section 9. Be it further enacted, that in order to prevent delay and inconvenience the two members of the board of any grand division of the state may grant a certificate of temporary license to any applicant who is permanently located as a resident of some designated place in that division of the state, upon satisfactory evidence to them that such applicant possesses the qualification herein above required, and upon examination by them of such applicant in the subjects named in section 6 of this act, (Fee for examination for temporary license, $5, and fee for license, $1; total $6) and make report thereof to the next regular meeting of the board, such temporary license shall not continue in force longer than the conclusion of the next regular meeting of the board, and shall in no case be granted within six months after the applicant has been refused a certificate of license by the board, provided that after Jan. 1, 1903, no certificates of temporary license shall be issued."

Sections 12 and 13 prescribe recording of license with county court clerk prior to commencing practice and on changes of residence from one county to another and the keeping of the records of the same by the clerk. Section 15 prescribes for revocation of license for unprofessional or dishonorable conduct, which is defined in section 16.

Section 16 defines the words unprofessional or dishonorable conduct as used in Section 15 of this act in the same words as in the California law, except that with habitual intemperance the "excessive use of narcotics" is added. Section 17 prohibits itinerant or other nostrum venders. Section 18 prescribes penalties for illegal practice. Section 19. "Be it further enacted that any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this act who shall treat or profess to treat, operate on, or prescribe for any physical ailment or any physical injury to or deformity of another." The law is specified not to apply to those usually exempted, or to osteopaths not giving or using medicine in their practice, nor to opticians nor to Christian scientists. Section 21 provides for the grand jury to have inquisitorial power in case of violations of the act. Section 22 disqualifies the board for issuing any license contrary to its provisions, and Section 23 repeals former law and amendments contrary to this act.—Journal of the American Medical Association.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

Dear Doctor:--What would you prescribe for my case?

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

POLK'S MEDICAL

Texas

TEXAS.

CAPITAL, AUSTIN.

Population of State, 3,048,710.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of physicians, 5,241.

Texas, the largest State in the Union, extends from 25 degrees 51 minutes to 36 degrees 30 minutes north latitude, and from 93 degrees 31 minutes to 106 degrees 43 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north by the Indian Territory, on the southeast by the Gulf of Mexico, on the southwest by Mexico, on the east by Arkansas and Louisiana, and on the west by New Mexico. It comprises an area of 274,356 square miles, or 175,587,840 acres.

The climate is warm, but equable and salubrious, and the mean annual temperature, as observed at Austin, is 66.72 degrees, and at Galveston 69.38 degrees. In the extreme south it is about 75 degrees, and in the north it falls to 56 degrees. The average annual rainfall is about 41 inches.

The following table shows increase in population during 50 years:

1860	604,215	1890	2,235,523
1870	818,579	1900	3,048,710

For list of Medical Colleges, see page 138.

MEDICAL LAW OF TEXAS.

An Act to repeal Title LXXXII., of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas, and to pass in lieu thereof this act: To license physicians and surgeons and endeavor to regulate the practice of medicine, and to punish persons violating the provisions thereof in the State of Texas.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas: That Title LXXXII., Articles 3777, 3778, 3779, 3780, 3781, 3782, 3783, 3784, 3785, 3786, 3787, 3788, 3789, of the Revised Statutes of Texas, be and are hereby repealed, and the following be enacted:

Sec. 2. There shall be established three boards of medical examiners for the State of Texas, to be named and styled "the Board of Medical Examiners for the State of Texas," "the Board of Eclectic Medical Examiners for the State of Texas," and "the Board of Homeopathic Medical Examiners of the State of Texas," said boards to consist of nine members each, whose terms of office shall be for two years or until their successors have been appointed and qualified; provided, that no member shall be a professor or teacher in any medical school.

Sec. 3. The said boards shall consist of men learned in medicine and surgery now in active practice, who shall have resided in the State of Texas, and shall have practiced medicine for not less than five years prior to their appointment, having complied with the laws relating to the practice of medicine already in force in the State of Texas, and shall be appointed by the governor on the tenth day of May following his inauguration, from a list of names twice the number to be appointed to be furnished him and recommended by the Texas State Medical Association, the Eclectic Medical Society of the State of Texas, the Homeopathic Medical Society of the State of Texas; provided, however, in case the Governor shall consider any of the persons so recommended unsuitable he may decline to appoint any such person or persons, and communicate the fact to the presiding officer of the society presenting the nomination, and such society shall, within sixty days thereafter, make other recommendations; and provided, that no one shall be eligible to appointment or service on such medical board who is addicted to intoxication or the habitual use of morphine, cocaine, or other such drugs. Vacancies occurring in such board shall be filled from the list already in the hands of the Governor for unexpired terms.

Sec. 4. The members of such boards shall qualify by taking the usual oath of office before the county judge of the county in which they shall respectively reside. The officers of said board shall be a president, vice-president, and secretary, who shall also act as treasurer. Six members shall constitute a quorum. Regular meetings of the boards shall be held at least twice a year at such times and places as the boards may from time to time determine. Due notice of said meetings shall be given by publication in such papers as may be selected by the boards. Special meetings may be held upon the call of the president and two members. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws for their own proceedings and government, and for the examination by its members of applicants for the practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of said boards at any of their meetings to examine all persons making application to them who shall desire to commence the practice of medicine, surgery, midwifery in this State, and who shall not by the provisions of this act be exempt from such examination, and when an applicant shall have passed a satisfactory examination a certificate signed by all the members of the board shall be issued to said applicant entitling him or her to practice medicine, surgery, obstetrics in the State of Texas, and shall have affixed to it the seal of the State of Texas.

Sec. 6. In case any applicant shall fail to pass a satisfactory examination he or she shall not be permitted to stand any further examination within one year thereafter, and in no event shall an applicant who stands rejected by one of said boards be examined or licensed by either of the other boards. If an applicant desires to practice a system not represented by any of the boards hereby established, he or she may elect for himself or herself the board before which he or she will appear for examination; provided, that no applicant shall be rejected because of his or her adherence to any particular school of medicine or system of practice, nor on account of his or her views as to the method of treatment, and cure of disease; and provided further, when in the opinion of the presidents of the boards any applicant has been unavoidably prevented from appearing before board at their regular meeting, said president shall, upon notification, appoint a committee of three members to examine such applicant, and if the examination be satisfactory notify the secretary, who shall issue him or her a temporary certificate, which shall have the same force and effect as though granted by the full board until the applicant shall have the opportunity to appear before the board at its next regular meeting when said temporary certificate shall become void. No applicant shall be admitted to examination who cannot submit satisfactory evidence that he or she is more than twenty-one years of age, and is of good moral character. Applications for license must be made in writing and presented to the president or secretary of the board before which the applicant desires to appear and must be accompanied by a fee of fifteen dollars; provided, when an applicant desires to practice midwifery alone the fee shall be five dollars.

Sec. 7. The boards of examiners shall keep a record of their proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing name, age, place and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent in medical study in or out of medical schools which have granted said applicant any degree or certificate of attendance upon lectures in medicine; said register shall show also whether said applicant was rejected or licensed and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein.

Sec. 8. From and after the passage of this amendment it shall be unlawful for any person to practice medicine, surgery or obstetrics in this State except: First, all those who were practicing medicine in Texas prior to January 1, 1885. Second, all those who began the practice of medicine in this State after the above date who have complied with the laws of this State regulating the practice of medicine in force prior to the passage of this act; provided, that those who had diplomas recorded since January 1, 1891, shall present to the State Boards of Medical Examiners herein provided for satisfactory evidence that their diplomas were issued by bona fide medical colleges of respectable standing, receive a certificate from said boards, which shall be recorded as herein provided for, and provided that no fees shall be required for the issuing of such certificates. Third, all persons who shall hereafter receive certificates from the Board of Medical Examiners of this State as above provided for, and who shall also in all other respects have complied with the provisions of this act. Fourth, and provided, that all persons who may change their residence to the State of Texas, on filing a true copy of a license granted by the board of medical examiners of another State or Territory, certified by the affidavits of the president and secretary of said board, with satisfactory proof of the genuineness of the same, and showing that the standard of requirements of the medical laws of said State or Territory and that adopted by said board of medical examiners are equal to that provided for in this act, and who, on payment of the usual fee of fifteen dollars, may be registered and receive a license from the Board of Medical Examiners of Texas to practice in this State. Fifth, and provided further, that all persons who desire to hereafter begin the practice of midwifery in this State, and charge for their services, shall make application to the medical examining boards, said application to be accompanied with the fee of five dollars as herein provided, and when the said medical examining boards may admit to examination such applicant, and after passing a satisfactory examination in this special branch, will be granted a license to practice midwifery in the State of Texas; provided, this shall not apply to those who do not follow midwifery as a profession, and who do not advertise themselves as midwives, or hold themselves out to the public as practicing the profession of midwifery.

Sec. 9. Any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine or surgery within the meaning of this act who shall profess publicly to be a physician or surgeon and shall offer for practice as such for those needing medical or surgical aid, and shall charge therefor money or other compensation. This act shall be so construed as to include persons not pretending to be physicians who offer for sale publicly on the streets or other public places remedies not manufactured and compounded within this State which they recommend for the cure of disease, but this act shall not apply to any commissioned officer or contract surgeon of the United States army, navy or marine hospital service in the performance of their duties as such, nor to any legally qualified and registered dentist under the laws of this State, nor to any lawfully qualified physician or surgeon residing in other States or Territories, meeting registered physicians and surgeons of this State in consultation.

Sec. 10. The applicant shall be examined in the following branches: Anatomy, physiology, chemistry, materia medica, therapeutics, histology, pathology, practice of medicine, surgery, including diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat; obstetrics, gynecology, hygiene, and medical jurisprudence.

Sec. 11. The fund realized from the fees aforesaid shall be applied first to the payment of the necessary expenses of the boards of examiners, each board receiving only such fees as are collected from applicants which appear before said board. In addition to expenses the secretary shall receive ten dollars per day while in actual attendance upon regular meetings. If any balance be left in the treasury of the boards it shall be divided among the members in attendance as compensation for loss of time.

Sec. 12. Before any person obtaining a license under the provisions of this act can lawfully practice medicine, surgery or midwifery in this State he or she shall cause the said license to be recorded in the district clerk's office in the county in which he or she offers to practice. The license shall be recorded by the clerk of the district court in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be properly indexed. The clerk shall receive from the applicant a fee of fifty cents for recording this instrument.

Sec. 13. Any person who shall practice medicine, surgery or midwifery in this State in violation of the provisions of this act shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense or by both fine and imprisonment not exceeding six months and it shall not be lawful for him or her to recover by action, suit, motion, or warrant, any compensation for services which may be claimed to have been rendered by him or her as such physician, surgeon or midwife; provided, that the provisions of this act do not apply to persons treating disease who do not prescribe or give drugs or medicines.

Sec. 14. That Title LXXXII., of the Revised Statutes of Texas, and Articles 3777, 3778, 3779, 3780, 3781, 3782, 3783, 3784, 3785, 3786, 3787, 3788, 3789, of said title be and the same are hereby repealed, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act be and are hereby repealed.

Sec. 15. The fact that there is no law in force adequately providing for the license of physicians, surgeons and midwives creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and this act be placed on its final passage and it is so enacted.

(Note.—The enrolled bill shows that the foregoing act passed the House of Representatives by two-thirds vote, yeas 92, nays 2, and passed the Senate by two-thirds vote, yeas 23, nays 0.)

Approved February 22, 1901.

Law became effective July 9, 1901.

CAUTION.

Beware of the so-called Medical Directories, plagiarized from R. L. Polk & Co.'s Medical and Surgical Register of the U. S. and Canada, in violation of the copyright Laws.

We have positive proof that some of the so-called State Medical directories issued since August, 1900, were copied from our 1900 Register and palmed off as new and original works.

Our friends will confer a favor upon us as well as render a service to the medical profession by promptly notifying us of such attempted frauds.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

RECTAL DISEASES.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

Dear Doctor:--What would you prescribe for my case?

UTAH.

CAPITAL, SALT LAKE CITY.

Population of State, 276,749.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 297.

Utah was organized as a territory, September 9, 1850, and admitted as a state January 4, 1896. It occupies an important position in the trans-Mississippi group of states. It is situated between the parallels of 37 and 42 degrees north latitude, and the meridians of 109 and 114 degrees west of Greenwich. On the same parallels are Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Southern Illinois, Kentucky, Virginia, Spain, Italy, Greece, Turkey and Corea. The state adjoins Colorado, Nevada, Arizona and Idaho. It is 275 miles in width and 345 miles in length. Its total area is 84,970 square miles; its land area is 82,190 square miles (52,601,600 acres); its water area is 2,780 square miles (1,779,200 acres).

Its valleys are elevated from 2,700 to 7,000 feet above the sea. Some of its mountain peaks reach a height of from 12,000 to 13,500 feet. The Wasatch Mountains sweep down its center, and Uintah's cross its upper half. It is a region of snow-clad mountains and broad, beautiful valleys. Many streams flow from the elevations and meander through the vales. Its largest body of water is the Great Salt Lake, covering an area of about 2,500 square miles. This is a far-famed feature of its topography; but it has a number of fresh water lakes of considerable size, the largest being Utah Lake, with a surface area of 125 square miles.

Within the lines of the state there exists a remarkable diversity of country, containing many unique features, some of which have given it world-wide fame, such as the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and other wild scenery in the southern portion.

Almost every variety of climate, which is generally salubrious and agreeable, can be found in Utah. There are valleys for the farmer, the gardener and the fruit-grower; low mountain land, slopes and terraces for the sheep-raiser; mountains for the miner; scenery, hunting, fishing, and bathing for the pleasure-seeker; hot springs and pure air for the invalid, and plenty of opportunity and occupation for men of business and enterprise.

MEDICAL LAWS OF UTAH.

AN ACT REGULATING THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE IN THE STATE OF UTAH.

Title 52. Physicians and Surgeons.

Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the State of Utah:

1728. State Board of Medical Examiners—Appointment.—There shall be appointed by the Governor at each regular session of the Legislature, by and with the consent of the Senate, a State Board of Medical Examiners, which shall consist of seven members, who shall be representatives of the various recognized schools of medicine and shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. Each person so appointed shall qualify by taking an oath before a judge of the district court that he is a graduate of a legally chartered medical college in good standing and will faithfully perform the duties of his office. Vacancies in the board shall be filled by appointment by the Governor within one month from the time the vacancy shall occur. ('92, p. 81*; '94, p. 128.')

1729. Organization—Examination and Certificates.—Said board shall organize immediately after its appointment by selecting from its members a president, a secretary and a treasurer. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum. The board shall have a seal, with which it shall attest its official acts. Any member of the board shall have authority to administer oaths, and the board shall have authority to take testimony in all matters relating to the duties of the board. The board shall have power to issue certificates to any person who furnishes satisfactory proof of having received a degree or diploma from a chartered medical college in good standing, and who shall pass a satisfactory examination before the board. The board shall issue two forms of certificates or licenses, one for persons holding such a degree or diploma who has been examined and favorably passed upon by the board, and another for persons desiring to practice obstetrics under the provisions of section seventeen hundred and thirty-seven. Certificates and licenses shall be signed by all members of the board granting them. ('92, p. 81*; '94, p. 129.')

The prohibitions of the United States Constitution against State legislation abridging the privileges of citizens are not violated by act, March 10th, 1892, applicable alike to citizens of Utah and of other States and Territories, which authorizes the licensing, without examination, of medical graduates who were, but not those who were not, in actual practice at its passage, and also of persons who had practiced for ten years in the Territory before the taking effect of the act, upon passing an examination, although without a diploma, while requiring others to have a diploma besides passing an examination. People vs. Hasbrouck, 11 U., 291; 39, p. 918. Nor is such act, in authorizing the board to ascertain and determine the qualifications of applicants to practice medicine, unconstitutional, as conferring judicial power on the board. Id.

1730. Fee for Examination.—The fee for the examination provided for in the last preceding section shall be fifteen dollars, which shall be paid to the treasurer of the board of examiners. ('92, p. 82*; '94, p. 129.)

1731. Non-Graduates.—No non-graduate licensed under the provisions of the acts of the Territorial Legislature shall, in any way, advertise as a doctor, physician or surgeon, but shall, if he advertises at all, do so as a licensed non-graduate practitioner of medicine. The secretary of the board shall enter, without fee, upon the register to be kept by him, the names of all persons to whom certificates are issued as physicians and surgeons. ('92, p. 82*; '94, pp. 129-30.)

1732. Certificates to be Recorded.—Every person holding a certificate from the said board shall have it recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which he resides, within three months from the date, and the date of record shall be indorsed thereon. Until each certificate is recorded as herein provided, the holder thereof shall not exercise any of the privileges conferred therein to practice medicine. Any person removing to another county to practice medicine shall record the certificate in like manner in the county to which he removes, and the holder of the certificate shall pay the recorder the usual fees for recording such certificates. ('92, p. 82*; '94, p. 130*.)

1733. Record.—The county recorder shall keep in a book provided for that purpose, a complete list of the certificates recorded by him, with the date of the issue of the certificate, and, if the certificate be based upon a degree and examination, the name of the medical college conferring the degree, and the date thereof. The register of the county recorder shall be open to public inspection during business hours. ('92, p. 82*; '94, p. 130*.)

1734. Examinations—Refusal and Revocation of Certificates.—Examinations may be made wholly or partially in writing. The board of medical examiners may refuse to issue the certificates provided for in this title to individuals convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of any offense involving immoral or dishonorable conduct, the nature of which shall be stated in writing. The board may revoke such certificates for like causes. ('92, p. 82*; '94, p. 130*.)

1735. "Practicing Medicine" Defined.—Any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this title, who shall treat, operate upon or prescribe for any physical ailment of another for a fee, or who shall hold himself out by means of signs, cards, advertisements or otherwise, as a physician or surgeon; but nothing in this title shall be construed to prohibit services in case of emergency, or the administration of family remedies, nor to prevent medical officers of the United States army from the discharge of their official duties, nor to prohibit visiting physicians in the act of consultation. ('92, p. 80*; '94, pp. 130-1*.)

1736. Practicing Without License.—Any person practicing medicine, surgery or obstetrics within this State without holding a lawful certificate or license, or otherwise contrary to the provisions of this title, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. ('92, pp. 82-3*; '94, p. 131*.)

1737. Obstetricians.—Persons desiring to practice obstetrics in this State shall be entitled to a license upon satisfactorily passing an examination by the State board of examiners and paying to the treasurer thereof a fee of five dollars; provided, that this section shall not be construed to prevent physicians holding a certificate from practicing obstetrics, or to prohibit such service or the acceptance of a fee in case of emergency, or persons practicing obstetrics in communities where there are no licensed practitioners. ('92, p. 83*; '94, p. 131*.)

1738. Meetings of Board.—The board of medical examiners shall meet on the first Monday in January, April, July and October of each year, at 10 o'clock a. m., and such other times as the president of the board shall deem necessary. The place of meeting shall be at the State capital. ('92, p. 84*; '94, p. 132*.)

1739. Removal of Member of Board.—Any member of said board may be removed for misconduct in office by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the board, but no member shall be removed until after he has been given a trial before said board. ('92, p. 84*; '94, p. 132*.)

1740. "Medical College" Defined.—The term "medical college" in this title shall include colleges in good standing in the States where they exist. ('92, p. 84*; '94, p. 132*.)

1741. Territorial Certificates.—Nothing in this title shall be deemed to require persons now holding certificates from the Territorial board of examiners to make application for license. ('92, p. 82*; '94, p. 132*.)

1742. Fees, How Expended.—Money received under this title may be applied in defraying the expenses of the examining board. ('94, p. 132*.)

VERMONT.

CAPITAL, MONTPELIER.

Population of State, 343,641.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 735.

The State of Vermont extends from 42 degrees to 45 degrees north latitude, and from 71 degrees 25 minutes to 73 degrees 26 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north by Canada, on the south by Massachusetts, on the east by New Hampshire and on the west by New York. It comprises an area of 10,212 square miles, or 6,535,680 acres, and is intersected by the Green Mountains, which, trending from north to south, nearly parallel to the western boundary, are covered by forests of coniferous trees.

The climate is cold, and like most of the New England States, is marked by great extremes, the winters being severe and of long duration, and the summers short, but extremely warm. The mean annual temperature, as observed at Montpelier, is 42.76 degrees, and the average annual rainfall about 36 inches.

1830.....	280,652	1870.....	330,551
1840.....	291,948	1880.. . .	332,286
1850.....	314,120	1890.	332,422
1860.....	315,098	1900.. . . .	343,641

MEDICAL LAW OF VERMONT.

EPTTOME OF THE VERMONT STATUTES IN RELATION TO THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY.

"Sec. 4630. State medical societies organized under a charter from the general assembly shall, at each annual session, elect a board of censors, consisting of three members, who shall hold their office till others are elected. Such board may examine and license practitioners of medicine, surgery and midwifery."

Sec. 4631. No person shall, by sign or advertisement, assume the title of doctor, or offer his services to the public as a practitioner of medicine, surgery or midwifery, until he has obtained a certificate from a county, district, or State medical society."

"Sec. 4632. A person not a resident of this State but residing on the border of a contiguous State, who is legally qualified under the laws of the State in which he resides to practice medicine therein, and whose practice extends into this State, shall be permitted to practice the medical art in this State, provided he does not open an office or appoint a place to meet patients or to receive calls within this State."

"Sec. 4633. Each board of censors shall issue certificates to physicians and surgeons who personally present to such board a diploma from a medical college or university, and who by examination satisfy said board of censors that they are qualified to practice the branches mentioned in said diploma.

"Sec. 2. Each applicant for such examination shall pay to said board of censors the sum of five dollars."

"Sec. 4634. The censors of each medical society aforesaid shall, in their discretion, notify practitioners of medicine, surgery or midwifery of the terms of this chapter, and require such persons to comply therewith, within thirty days after such notification, or within such further time as is allowed by the censors, not exceeding ninety days."

Sec. 4635. Prescribes form of certificate.

Sec. 4636. Requires the certificate to be recorded in the office of the county clerk.

Sec. 4637. Makes certificate valid throughout the State, but permits its revocation or annulment by the censors, for cause.

Sec. 4638. Prescribes penalty for practicing or giving death certificate without license.

Sec. 4639. Prohibits the collection of fees by persons practicing without license certificates.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

VIRGINIA.

CAPITAL, RICHMOND.

Population of State, 1,854,184.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 2,215.

Virginia, one of the original thirteen States, has a population, according to the United States Census of 1900, of 1,854,184, as against 1,655,980 in 1890, representing an increase during the decade of 198,204, or 12 per cent. The following table shows the increase in population since 1830:

1830.....	1,211,405	1870... ..	1,225,163
1840.....	1,239,797	1880.....	1,512,565
1850.....	1,421,661	1890.....	1,655,980
1860.....	1,596,318	1900.....	1,854,184

The total land surface is, approximately, 40,125 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 41.3; 1900, 46.2. It extends from 36 degrees, 30 minutes to 39 degrees, 27 minutes north latitude, and from 75 degrees, 10 minutes to 83 degrees, 30 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north by Maryland and West Virginia, on the south by Tennessee and North Carolina, on the east by Chesapeake Bay and the Atlantic ocean, and on the west by Kentucky and West Virginia. Its latitude is that of Southern Europe, Central Asia, Southern Japan and California, giving it a climate at once delightful and salubrious. Virginia is divided into five grand divisions—the Tidewater, the Midland, the Piedmont, the Great Valley and the Appalachia. The western section of the State is traversed by two mountain ranges, the Blue Ridge and the Alleghenies, between which lies the far-famed valley of Virginia. The general elevation of the lands lying in the mountain region is from 1,800 to 2,000 feet, though some even rise to 2,700 feet, while the peaks which tower above the surrounding country are more than 4,000 feet above the level of the sea. Hence it will be seen that, topographically, Virginia varies from the sandy shores which are washed by the Chesapeake Bay and the Atlantic ocean to the verdure-clad mountain ranges, where grow the hemlock and the birch. It is well watered in all portions by springs, brooks, creeks, rivulets and several navigable rivers, among the latter being the historic Potomac, navigable for 110 miles; the Rappahannock, 82 miles; the York, 40 miles, besides the James, Pianitank and others, giving it 1,500 miles of steamboat navigation and double this amount for smaller craft. The average annual rainfall is about 40 inches.

she presents a diploma of graduation as doctor of medicine from some regularly chartered college of medicine.

And when an applicant shall have passed an examination satisfactory as to proficiency before the board in session, the president thereof shall grant to such applicant a certificate to that effect. A fee of ten dollars shall be paid to said board, through such officers or members as it may designate, by each applicant, before such examination is allowed.

Second. Re-examination—And in case any applicant, who has produced before the said board satisfactory evidence of his graduation in some medical college chartered by the state or territory in which the same is situated, shall have heretofore failed, or shall hereafter fail, to pass a satisfactory examination on all of the branches submitted by the board in any regular examination held by it, he or she shall have be permitted to stand a further examination on any branch or branches in which he or she shall have failed to pass the said examination, at any subsequent examination held by the board within six months thereafter; but no further examination shall be required on such branch or branches as he or she shall have passed a satisfactory examination on; and when such applicant shall have finally passed a satisfactory examination on all of the assigned branches, then the president of the board shall present to such applicant a certificate to that effect.

But such applicant shall not have again to pay the fee prescribed as aforesaid; provided, however, no applicant shall be rejected upon his examination on account of his adherence to any particular school of medicine or system of practice, nor on account of his views as to the method of treatment and cure of diseases; and, provided further, that when, in the opinion of the president of the board, any applicant has been prevented by good cause from appearing before the board, he shall have authority, in his discretion, to grant a special permit to such applicant to practice medicine or surgery until he shall have an opportunity to appear before the board in session for examination, which said special permit shall be revocable at the discretion of the president; and in no case shall it entitle the holder thereof to practice after the next regular meeting of said board.

The said board shall have, in their discretion, authority to accept in lieu of examination of an applicant a diploma or other satisfactory evidence of the graduation of the applicant in some medical college chartered by the state or territory in which the same is situated, and a certificate from the examining board of any other state or territory of the United States or of the District of Columbia, showing that such applicant has passed a satisfactory examination as to his proficiency, and obtained license from said board to practice medicine and surgery in said state, territory or district; provided, that any person who was examined by the state examining board, prior to January 1st, 1900, and whose fee for such examination was duly paid, but who failed to pass such examination, shall have the right and privilege of taking the examination before the said board, notwithstanding the provisions of this act.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

RECTAL DISEASES.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

WASHINGTON.

CAPITAL, OLYMPIA.

Population of State, 518,103.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 770.

The State of Washington occupies the extreme northwestern portion of the United States. The Straits of Juan de Fuca, Vancouver Island and the British Columbian possessions mark the northern border, the State of Idaho the eastern, the State of Oregon lying on the south. The Pacific ocean limits the land's end to the west. The state's area comprises an extent of, approximately, 70,000 square miles, 1,156 square miles of this being tide-water—Puget Sound. The state is divided into two most distinctive sections by the Cascade range of mountains, each section with a climate differing from the other and generally designated as "wet" and "dry" climates. Western Washington, comprising the Sound country and that section west of the Cascades, includes about one-third the total area of the state, is heavily timbered, with a mild and equable climate, small areas of natural prairie land, and that generally of a gravelly and non-productive nature.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

Eastern Washington is for the most part barren of trees—a rolling prairie, rich in soil, but for a large part subject to the necessity of irrigation for agricultural purposes. The climate of this section has more of the extremes of heat and cold than the western portion, and yet by no means to that extent which characterizes states of the same altitude and further east.

The climate of Washington is much more equable than that of other states situated in corresponding latitudes. The daily and seasonal range of temperature which so greatly affects climate everywhere is not great in this state. The mean temperature for the month of January, which is usually the coldest month in the year, is 35.2 degrees. This is the average of the mean January temperature for ten years, taken at stations well distributed throughout the entire state. A similar average for July, usually the hottest month, gives 64.6 degrees. These averages cannot be far from the true or normal temperature for January and July. The difference between these is 29.4 degrees, the seasonal range. A comparison of the difference between the winter and summer temperature in Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, Wisconsin or Michigan, all of which lie in the same latitude as Washington, with the seasonal change in this state, will show that it is comparatively low. To this fact may be attributed the entire absence of sudden changes or violent disturbances of the atmosphere within the state. The average of these two extremes, the temperature of January and July, gives a little less than 50 degrees for the mean annual temperature of the state. This is, however, about one degree above the true or normal temperature.

The principal river of the state is the Columbia, traversing the whole extent of the state from east to southwest and marking a portion of the southern boundary. Its tributaries are the Snake—joining at or near Pasco, the Yakima, Okanogan (in the north-central portion), the Spokane and numerous lesser streams. Flowing into Puget Sound are the Duwamish, Puyallup, White, Black, Cedar, Snohomish, Snoqualmie, Swinomish, Skagit, Nooksack, Skokomish and others of lesser note. Flowing into the Columbia nearer the Pacific are the Cowlitz and the Lewis rivers, both navigable streams, and into Gray's Harbor flows the Chehalis, navigable to some extent. Gray's Harbor and Willapa Harbor mark the middle and southern portions of the Washington coast, both being capable of accommodating the ordinary ocean-going vessels of the coast lumber trade. These two are the only accessible harbors of the coast between the Columbia river and the Straits of Fuca.

The principal bodies of fresh water within the state are Lake Washington, forming the eastern boundary of the City of Seattle, and Lake Chelan in the Okanogan country, the former being about twenty miles in length, and the latter nearly forty. Numerous small lakes dot the state, and all of them may be said to afford splendid opportunities for the sportsman and angler. The woods of Washington abound with deer, bear and lesser game, while the Olympic peninsula possesses vast bands of elk, and in the mountains are found sheep and goats. Grouse, pheasants, ducks and geese abound, and the introduction of foreign birds is being made.

The following table shows increase in population since 1870:

1870.....	.23,995	1890.	349,390

MEDICAL LAW OF WASHINGTON.

The governor appoints a State Medical Examining Board, consisting of nine members. The amended law of 1901 reads:

Section 3. Hereafter every person desiring to commence the practice of medicine and surgery, or either of them, in any of its or their branches, in this state, shall make a written application to said board for a license so to do. And each applicant for such license shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, shall furnish a certificate of good moral character, and shall be a graduate of some duly authorized medical college now having at least a three years' graded course. Such applicant at the time and place designated by said board, or at the regular meeting of said board, shall submit to an examination in the following branches: Anatomy, physiology, chemistry, histology, materia medica, therapeutics, preventive medicines, practice of medicine, surgery, obstetrics, diseases of women and children, diseases of the nervous system, diseases of the eye and ear, medical jurisprudence, and such other branches as the board shall deem advisable. Said board shall cause said examination to be both scientific and practical, and of sufficient severity to test the candidate's fitness to practice medicine and surgery; which examination shall be by written or printed, or partly written or partly printed questions and answers, and the same shall be filed and preserved of record in the office of the secretary of said board. After examination, if the same be satisfactory, said board shall grant a license to such applicant to practice medicine and surgery in the State of Washington, which said license can only be granted by the consent of not less than five members of said board, except as hereinafter provided, and which said license shall be signed by the president and secretary of said board, and attested by the seal thereof. The fee for such examination shall be ten dollars, and shall be paid by the applicant to the treasurer of said board toward defraying the expenses thereof; and such board may revoke or refuse a license for unprofessional or dishonorable conduct, subject, however, to the right of such applicant to appeal from the decision of said board refusing or revoking such license as hereinafter provided.

Provided, however, That in all cases where an applicant for a license under this act shall produce and exhibit to the examining board a certificate from a Board of Medical Examiners appointed under the laws of any state of the United States and recognizing licenses from this state certifying to the fact that the person presenting such certificate is duly and well qualified to practice medicine and surgery, in the state issuing said certificate, and that said board issuing said certificate has subjected the applicant to a thorough examination to ascertain this fact, he or she may at the discretion of the examining board upon paying the fee herein prescribed and otherwise complying with all the requirements of this act, receive from the examining board provided for in this act a license as if an examination of said applicant was had in this state, and upon filing said license with the clerk of the superior court as herein provided he or she shall be a legally qualified practitioner of medicine and surgery in this state, subject to all the provisions of this act as to the revocation of said license as herein provided.

"Section 7. The person receiving said license shall, before he or she commences the practice of medicine or surgery or any of their branches, file the same or a certified copy thereof, with the county clerk in and for the county where he or she resides, and said county clerk shall file said certificate, or copy thereof, and enter a memorandum thereof giving the date of said license and name of the person to whom the same was issued, and the date of such filing, in a book to be provided and kept for that purpose; and said county clerk shall each year furnish to the secretary of said board a list of all certificates on file in his office, and upon notice to him of a change of location or death of a person so licensed, or of the revocation of the license granted to such person, said county clerk shall enter, in the appropriate place in the record so kept by him, a memorandum of said fact, so that the records kept by the county clerk shall correspond with the records of the board as kept by the secretary thereof. In case a person so licensed shall move into another county in this state, he or she shall procure from the county clerk a certified copy of said license, and file the same with the county clerk in the county to which he or she shall remove. Said county clerk shall file and enter the same with like effect as if the same were the original license. Proof of failure to file said license or copy thereof, with the county clerk as herein provided, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this act, and shall be punishable as provided herein. The county clerk's records shall be the only evidence required as proof of such failure to file, but may be rebutted by competent testimony.

"Section 8. Any person practicing medicine or surgery or either of its or their branches within this state without having first obtained and filed the license provided for in this act, or contrary to the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment. In all prosecutions under the provisions of this act, evidence that the defendant has failed to file a license with the county clerk, as herein required, shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant is not a legally licensed practitioner, and each day of such illegal practice shall be deemed a separate offense under this act. All fines collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the state treasury for the use and benefit of the common schools of this state. Any person shall be deemed as practicing within the meaning of this act who shall have and maintain an office or place of business with his or her name and the words "physician" or "surgeon," "Doctor," "M. D." or "M. B.," in public view, or shall assume or advertise the title of doctor or any title which shall show or shall tend to show that the person assuming or advertising the same is a lawful practitioner of any of the branches of medicine or surgery in such a manner as to convey the impression that he or she is a practitioner of medicine or surgery under the laws of this state; or any person who shall practice medicine under a false or assumed name, or under cover of the name of some legal practitioner, or personate any legal practitioner, or for a fee prescribe or direct, or recommend for the use of any person any drug or medicine for the treatment, care or relief of any wound, fracture or bodily injury, infirmity or disease. Provided, however, That this act shall not apply to dentists while confining themselves strictly to dentistry. Justices of the peace and the superior court shall have concurrent jurisdiction of violations of this act. It shall be the duty of the respective county or district attorneys to prosecute all violations of this act. In cases of appeal to the superior court, as hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein such appeal shall be tried to represent said board upon said appeal. And in all cases of appeal to the supreme court under the provisions of this act the attorney general shall represent said board upon such appeal.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

CAUTION.

Beware of so called Medical Directories, plagiarized from R. L. Polk & Co's Medical and Surgical Register of the U. S. and Canada, in violation of the copy-right laws.

We have positive proof that some of the so-called State Medical directories issued since August, 1900, were copied from our 1900 Register and palmed off as new and original works.

Our friends will confer a favor upon us as well as render a service to the medical profession by promptly notifying us of such attempted frauds.

WEST VIRGINIA.

CAPITAL, CHARLESTON.

Population of State, 958,800.

(U. S. Census of 1900.)

Number of Physicians, 1,445.

West Virginia was set off from Virginia, December 31, 1862 and admitted as a state June 19, 1863. It has, according to the United States census of 1900, a population of 958,800, as against 762,794 in 1890, representing an increase during the decade of 196,006, or 25.7 per cent. This rate of increase compares favorably with that for the decade immediately preceding which was 23.3, but both are considerably less than that for the ten years from 1870 to 1880, which was 39.9 per cent. The first census of West Virginia was taken in 1870, seven years after it was organized as a separate state, and the population at that time was 442,014. Since then it has increased by satisfactory percentages, and is at present more than twice as large as it was in 1870. The total land surface is approximately 24,645 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 31.0; 1900, 38.9. It extends from 37 degrees, 6 minutes to 39 degrees, 37 minutes north latitude and from 77 degrees, 43 minutes to 82 degrees, 33 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north by Pennsylvania and Maryland, on the south and east by Virginia and on the west by Kentucky and Ohio. The climate is mild and healthful, the mean annual temperature being 54.27 degrees; that of the summer 71.40 degrees, and of the winter 36.66 degrees. The average annual rainfall is about 43 inches. The state is elevated throughout and mostly mountainous, the whole eastern portion is traversed by parallel ridges of the Allegheny mountains. The western part of the state is a rolling table land gently sloping down from 2,500 feet in the east to 900 feet on the banks of the Ohio river. The two principal rivers of the state are the Ohio and Potomac. Both flow along its borders and drain the state with numerous affluents. The principal of these are the Big Sandy, Guyandot, Elk, Monongahela, Kanawha, Cheat, Little and Great Cacapon, Shenandoah, etc.

MEDICAL LAW OF WEST VIRGINIA.

THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS FROM THE ACT OF 1895 SET FORTH THE LAW AS IT NOW IS WITH REGARD TO ADMISSION TO THE PROFESSION OF MEDICINE IN WEST VIRGINIA; AMENDING AND RE-ENACTING SECTION 9 OF CHAPTER 150 OF THE CODE OF WEST VIRGINIA:

WHO MAY PRACTICE MEDICINE IN THIS STATE.

9. The following persons and no others shall hereafter be permitted to practice medicine in this State, viz.: First—All such persons as shall be legally entitled to practice medicine in this State at the time of the passage of this act.

Second—All such persons as shall pass an examination before the State Board of Health and shall receive certificates from the said Board to that effect, as hereinafter provided.

EXAMINATIONS BY THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.

9a. The State Board of Health shall, at such times as a majority of them shall deem proper, hold examinations for the licensing of practitioners of medicine. Such examinations shall be not less in number than three, during each year, and shall be held at such points in the State as shall be most convenient to those presenting themselves for examination to the State Board of Health. At such examinations written and oral questions shall be submitted to the applicants for license, covering all the essential branches of the sciences of medicine and surgery, and the examination shall be a thorough and decisive test of the knowledge and ability of the applicants. The President and Secretary of the State Board of Health shall issue certificates to all who successfully pass the said examination; and such certificates, after being duly recorded as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed licenses to practice medicine and surgery in all their branches in this State.

The State Board of Health shall give timely notice of the time and place of holding each such examination, by publishing such notice in at least three newspapers of general circulation in this State, and all persons wishing to present themselves for examination should notify the Secretary of the State Board of Health to that effect. No applicant for license to practice medicine in this State shall be rejected because of his or her adherence to any particular school or theory of medicine. The State Board of Health shall call to their assistance, in the examination of any applicant who professes the homœopathic or eclectic school of medicine, a homœopathic or eclectic physician duly licensed to practice medicine in the State, and such homœopathic or eclectic physician so called to the assistance of the State Board of Health shall be allowed the per diem and actual expenses incurred, hereinafter allowed to regular members of the State Board of Health; provided, however, that the provisions of this and the preceding section shall not apply to physicians living in other States and duly qualified to practice medicine therein, who shall be called into consultation in this State by a physician legally entitled to practice medicine in this State under these sections.

We are pleased to call attention to Haskins Hospital, Wheeling, W. Virginia, a cut of the first building having been shown up in this directory from the time it was build five years ago.

This new institution has prospered as few do, as evidenced by the necessity for building a six-story annex two years ago, which is herein shown to the south-west of the old building. These buildings were designed with a special view to surgery and probably 75% of the patients treated there are surgical cases. Anyone capable of judging can readily see, by going through this building, how admirably it is arranged for this purpose.

The special features of this splendid hospital are as follows : A solid marble operating room, the advantages of which are quite apparent ; Dr. Haskins having his office in the building, and with his three assistants, graduates of some of our best colleges, constantly in the building, emergencies arising can be met at any moment ; Turkish Bath with expert rubbers and massage attendants (the importance of this cannot be over estimated.)

While this hospital is the property of Dr. Haskins, he cheerfully extends to physicians and surgeons in good standing the privilege of bringing patients here, performing operations, etc.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and last number the year in which diploma was granted.

RECTAL DISEASES.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

Number of Physicians, 2,389.

Wisconsin was organized as a territory July 3, 1836, and admitted as a state May 29, 1848. It has, according to the United States Census of 1900, a population of 2,069,042, as against 1,686,880 in 1890, representing an increase since 1890 of 382,162, or 22.7 per cent. The following table shows the increase in population since 1840:

1840.....	30,945	1880.....	1,315,497
1850.....	305,391	1890.....	1,686,880
1860.....	775,881	1900.....	2,069,042
1870.....	1,054,670

The total land surface is, approximately, 54,450 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 31.0; 1900, 38.0. It extends from 42 degrees, 31 minutes to 46 degrees, 58 minutes north latitude, and from 87 degrees to 92 degrees, 53 minutes west longitude, and is bounded on the north by Lake Superior, on the northeast by the northern peninsula of Michigan, on the east by Green Bay and Lake Michigan, on the south by Illinois, and on the west by Iowa and Minnesota. The climate is cool and pleasant, the mean annual temperature being 45.40 degrees, that of the summer 69.11 degrees and of the winter 20.84 degrees. The average annual rainfall is about 31 inches. The surface is comparatively level. The Penokee range, about 30 miles south of Lake Superior, is the highest elevation. A slight ridge borders Lake Michigan for 30 miles inland. The state has exceptional facilities for water transportation. Its coast line on Lake Superior of 120 miles, on Lake Michigan 200 miles and on the Mississippi river 400 miles. The affluents of Lake Superior, owing to the structure of the country, are short and have much fall. They are the Montreal, Bad, Burnt Wood and St. Louis. The Peshtigo, Menominee, Pensaukee, Oconto, Fox and Wolf run into Green Bay. The Mississippi receives the Chippewa, St. Croix, Wisconsin, Black, Rock, Buffalo and Trempealeau. Other important streams are the Sheboygan, Manitowoc, Milwaukee and Kewaunee flowing into Lake Michigan. The whole state is dotted with picturesque inland lakes. The northern and central portions of the state have extensive forests of pine, basswood, hickory, maple, elm, ash, black walnut, butternut, oak, birch, poplar, hemlock and cedar. The southern portion is an extensive prairie with very little native timber, except along the banks of the streams. Lead, iron, copper, zinc, salt, alum, and building materials constitute the principal mineral resources. The state ranks third in the production of sandstone, fourth in zinc and fifth in iron. Agriculture is the chief industry, the staple crops being corn, oats, wheat, rye, barley, hay, buckwheat, hops, flax, hemp, pulse, sorghum and tobacco. Dairying and live stock raising are important. The manufactures are extensive and rapidly increasing, the state being well known for its output of lumber, woodenware, beer, brick, boots and shoes, leather, harness, etc. Age, wealth and population considered, the state is unexcelled in the matter of public institutions. Its educational as well as its penal and charitable institutions, have been liberally established and intelligently supported, every effort having been put forth to raise to the highest degree the character and efficiency of them all.

WAUKESHA SPRINGS SANITARIUM

WAUKESHA, WISCONSIN.

BYRON M. CAPLES, M. D.,
Superintendent and Physician in charge.

JAMES H. McBRIDE, M. D.,
Los Angeles, Cal., Pres. Board of Directors.

A private institution for the care and treatment of nervous and mental diseases.

The sanitarium is healthfully situated on the high grounds overlooking the beautiful valley of the Fox River, within a short distance of the mineral springs for which Waukesha is so justly celebrated. It is easily accessible by three railways, and electric cars running hourly to Milwaukee. The delightful drives, shaded walks, and picturesque surroundings of Wisconsin's most famous summer resort afford pleasant and healthful diversions during the season, when band concerts and other features of life in a watering place render the location of the sanitarium especially desirable. Indoor pastimes are provided to make pleasant the winter months.

The new buildings which have recently been completed are equipped with every modern convenience and sanitary appliance which can add to the health and comfort of the patients. Electric light, hot water heat, deadened floors, reading and amusement rooms, gymnasium, billiards, sun parlors, tennis courts and croquet grounds, gymnastic appliances, etc., all contribute to make the institution one of the most complete in America.

COMPLETE SYSTEM OF BATHS.

Special care and attention has been given to make the bath department as complete and perfect as modern science can produce. One entire wing of the basement is devoted to this feature and contains in its commodious apartments, electric light baths, needle and shower baths, Russian, Turkish, steam, electric, together with electricity, massage, etc. Experienced attendants and masseurs in charge.

MENTAL CASES ISOLATED.

A separate building at a desirable distance from the main institution is provided for the care of mental cases, thus securing that quiet and isolation so necessary for their successful treatment. Every convenience is provided for their comfort.

any of their branches, shall apply to said Board at the time and place designated by the Board or at any regular meeting, for license so to do, and shall submit to an examination in the various branches of medicine and surgery, and present to said Board a diploma from a reputable medical college that requires at least four courses of not less than six months each before graduation; no two of said courses to be taken within any one twelve months, and that shall after the year 1901 require for admission thereto an elementary education equivalent to that necessary for entry to the junior class of an accredited high school of this State, including one year's course in Latin, and for graduation from said medical college at least four courses of not less than seven months each; no two of said courses to be taken within any one twelve months, provided, however, that any student who is now matriculated in any medical college of this State which requires four courses of six months' each as a prerequisite of graduation, no two courses to be taken within one twelve month, shall on presentation of his diploma from such medical college and on payment of the fees specified in this act, be admitted to practice without further examination by such State Board of Medical Examiners. The examination in materia medica, therapeutics, and practice of medicine shall be conducted by members of said Board representing the school of medicine which the applicant claims to follow. The proceedings of the Board shall at all reasonable times be open to public inspection. After an examination and upon presentation of a satisfactory diploma, as hereinbefore provided, the said Board shall, if it find the applicant qualified, grant a license to said applicant to practice medicine and surgery in this State, which license can only be granted by the consent of not less than five members, and which shall be signed by the president and secretary and attested by the seal of the Board. There shall be added to said Board an eighth member to be appointed by the Governor, within ninety days from the passage of this act, from a list of five names to be furnished him by the Wisconsin State Osteopathic Association, who shall be an osteopathic physician heretofore licensed in accordance with the provisions of this section, and who shall not in any way be connected with any osteopathic school. The term of office of such eighth member of said board shall be governed by the provisions of section 1435, and his successor shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions of this section. Said board shall grant license to practice osteopathy to all applicants of good moral character who pass the regular examination of such board in anatomy, histology, physiology, obstetrics, gynecology, pathology, urinalysis, toxicology, hygiene and dietetics, diagnosis, theory and practice of osteopathy, and present to said board a diploma from a regularly conducted college of osteopathy maintaining the standard of the associated colleges of osteopathy in its requirements for matriculation and graduation and requiring personal attendance for at least four terms of five months each. All reputable resident graduates of regular colleges of osteopathy who were practicing in this state prior to March first, 1901, and who shall be recommended to said board by the executive committee of the Wisconsin State Osteopathic Association, shall, upon application, without examination, be granted a license to practice osteopathy, provided application for such license is made within ninety days from the passage of this act. Osteopaths when so licensed shall have the same rights and privileges, and be subject to the same statutes and regulations as other physicians, but shall not have the right to give or prescribe drugs or to perform surgical operations. Provided further, that the osteopathic schools to be recognized by the board shall, after September, 1903, maintain the same standard as to elementary education and time of study before graduation, as is required of medical colleges by this act. Graduates of such osteopathic schools shall be entitled to take the full examination of said board, which shall, if it find the applicant qualified, grant a license to said applicant to practice medicine and surgery in this state. The fee for such examination shall be fixed by the board, but shall not exceed ten dollars, and five dollars additional for the certificate if issued, such fee shall be paid by the applicant to the treasurer of the board, to be applied toward defraying the expenses of the board. If any person licensed by said board shall be convicted of any crime committed in the course of his professional conduct, the court in which such conviction is had may, in addition to any other punishment imposed pursuant to law, revoke such license. Said board shall have the power to adopt such rules for its government and may require the filling out of such blanks as it may deem necessary to get at the true character and qualifications of applicant for license and may use discretionary power in refusing license to any who cannot furnish proof of good morals and professional character. The person so receiving such license shall record the same with the county clerk in the county of his residence and pay said clerk a fee of one dollar for recording the same, and the said clerk shall enter a memorandum thereof, giving the date of said license, name of the person to whom it was issued, and the date of such recording, in a book to be provided and kept for that purpose. Any person removing to any other county to practice medicine or surgery shall so record said license in the county to which he removes. Any practitioner neglecting to record his or her license or registration certificate as hereinbefore provided by this and the present medical laws, shall not exercise any of the rights or privileges conferred thereby. Any practitioner of medicine holding a certificate from any other state board imposing requirements equal to those established by the board provided for herein, may on presentation of the same with a diploma, be admitted to practice in this state without an examination, at the discretion of the board on the payment of the fee.

Is a modern institution well equipped for General Medical and Surgical work. It is situated on an elevation overlooking Rock River above the noise and dust of the city, yet is near the center of the city and is quickly reached by electric street cars. The operating rooms have the latest appliances, are well lighted and thoroughly aseptic. A large amount of general surgery and operative gynecology is being done constantly. The hospital has the only Sprague Hot Air Apparatus in the State for the treatment of Rheumatism and other chronic diseases. A Training School for nurses is maintained in connection with the Hospital.

Correspondence regarding all departments of the Hospital should be addressed to the Superintendent,

The postoffice address is shown in DISPLAY TYPE, the name of the county in which it is located immediately follows and then the population of the place. The names of physicians appear under the postoffice name, the first number (the key to which will be found on pages 131 to 172) indicates the college of graduation, and the last number the year in which diploma was granted.

PILES

One physician in every county should be instructed in the most successful Rectal treatment in the world. It insures great enlargement of practice through the unlimited gratitude of patients, and the most desirable financial advantages.
